

El Bosque Encantado · General brochure 2026

Where nature and art come together to create magic

El Bosque Encantado is a botanical garden and theme park in San Martín de Valdeiglesias, in a privileged natural setting in the mountains near Madrid, with natural waterfalls and streams. Discover a place where you will want to lose yourself.

More than 500 tree and plant species from around the world are displayed in the garden. El Bosque Encantado has a beautiful bonsai collection and a cactus collection. Discover the mineral area, ideal for nature and geology enthusiasts.

The garden's extraordinary living plant sculptures evoke the imaginative art of Edward Scissorhands. Children and grown-ups alike can enjoy the magical maze. Come and enjoy a unique experience.

Current visitor information

A joint ticket includes El Bosque Encantado, Dinolandia and Mineralandia. Online prices: adult €15; concession €14; child aged 3–12 €13. Under 3s enter free. Gate prices: adult €17; concession €16; child €15. Concessions apply to large families, visitors with disabilities, unemployed visitors, Youth Card holders and pensioners, with proof.

Open every day: Monday to Friday 09:00–16:00; Saturdays, Sundays and public holidays 10:30–21:00. Dinolandia switches off at 19:00 and the garden lights come on at 19:30 on weekends and public holidays. In summer, Fridays, Saturdays and Sundays close at 14:00 and reopen at 18:00 until mid-September. Last admission is 40 minutes before closing.

Visit the website's opening-hours page before travelling. The original brochure contains older tariffs; the current website prices above take precedence. Address: Camino de Marañones, 217, 28680 San Martín de Valdeiglesias, Madrid. General enquiries: info@bosqueencantado.net. Group enquiries: grupos@bosqueencantado.net · 621 27 73 79.